Ahead of the Curve: New china from China

13 December 2014 – 1 March 2015

Visitors to Bristol Museum & Art Gallery this winter will have the chance to see new conceptual and craft works fresh from the kilns of China's latest generation of ceramic and glass artists. Ahead of the Curve: New china from China showcases the work of twenty emerging and established Chinese ceramic and glass artists most of whom are exhibiting in the UK for the first time. The exhibition aims to take public awareness of Chinese ceramics out of the past and into the future.

Bristol Museum & Art Gallery is working with The Potteries Museum & Art Gallery, Cheltenham Art Gallery & Museum (The Wilson), and Twocities Gallery Shanghai to bring you this innovative exhibition directly from China.

From dreamy glass landscapes to a pyramid of porcelain babies, from abstract sculpture to inebriated teapots, Ahead of the Curve will present exciting developments from the past decade in Chinese ceramics and glass. Prepare to have your idea of 'china' forever changed with a series of practical ceramics workshops and weekly exhibition tours.

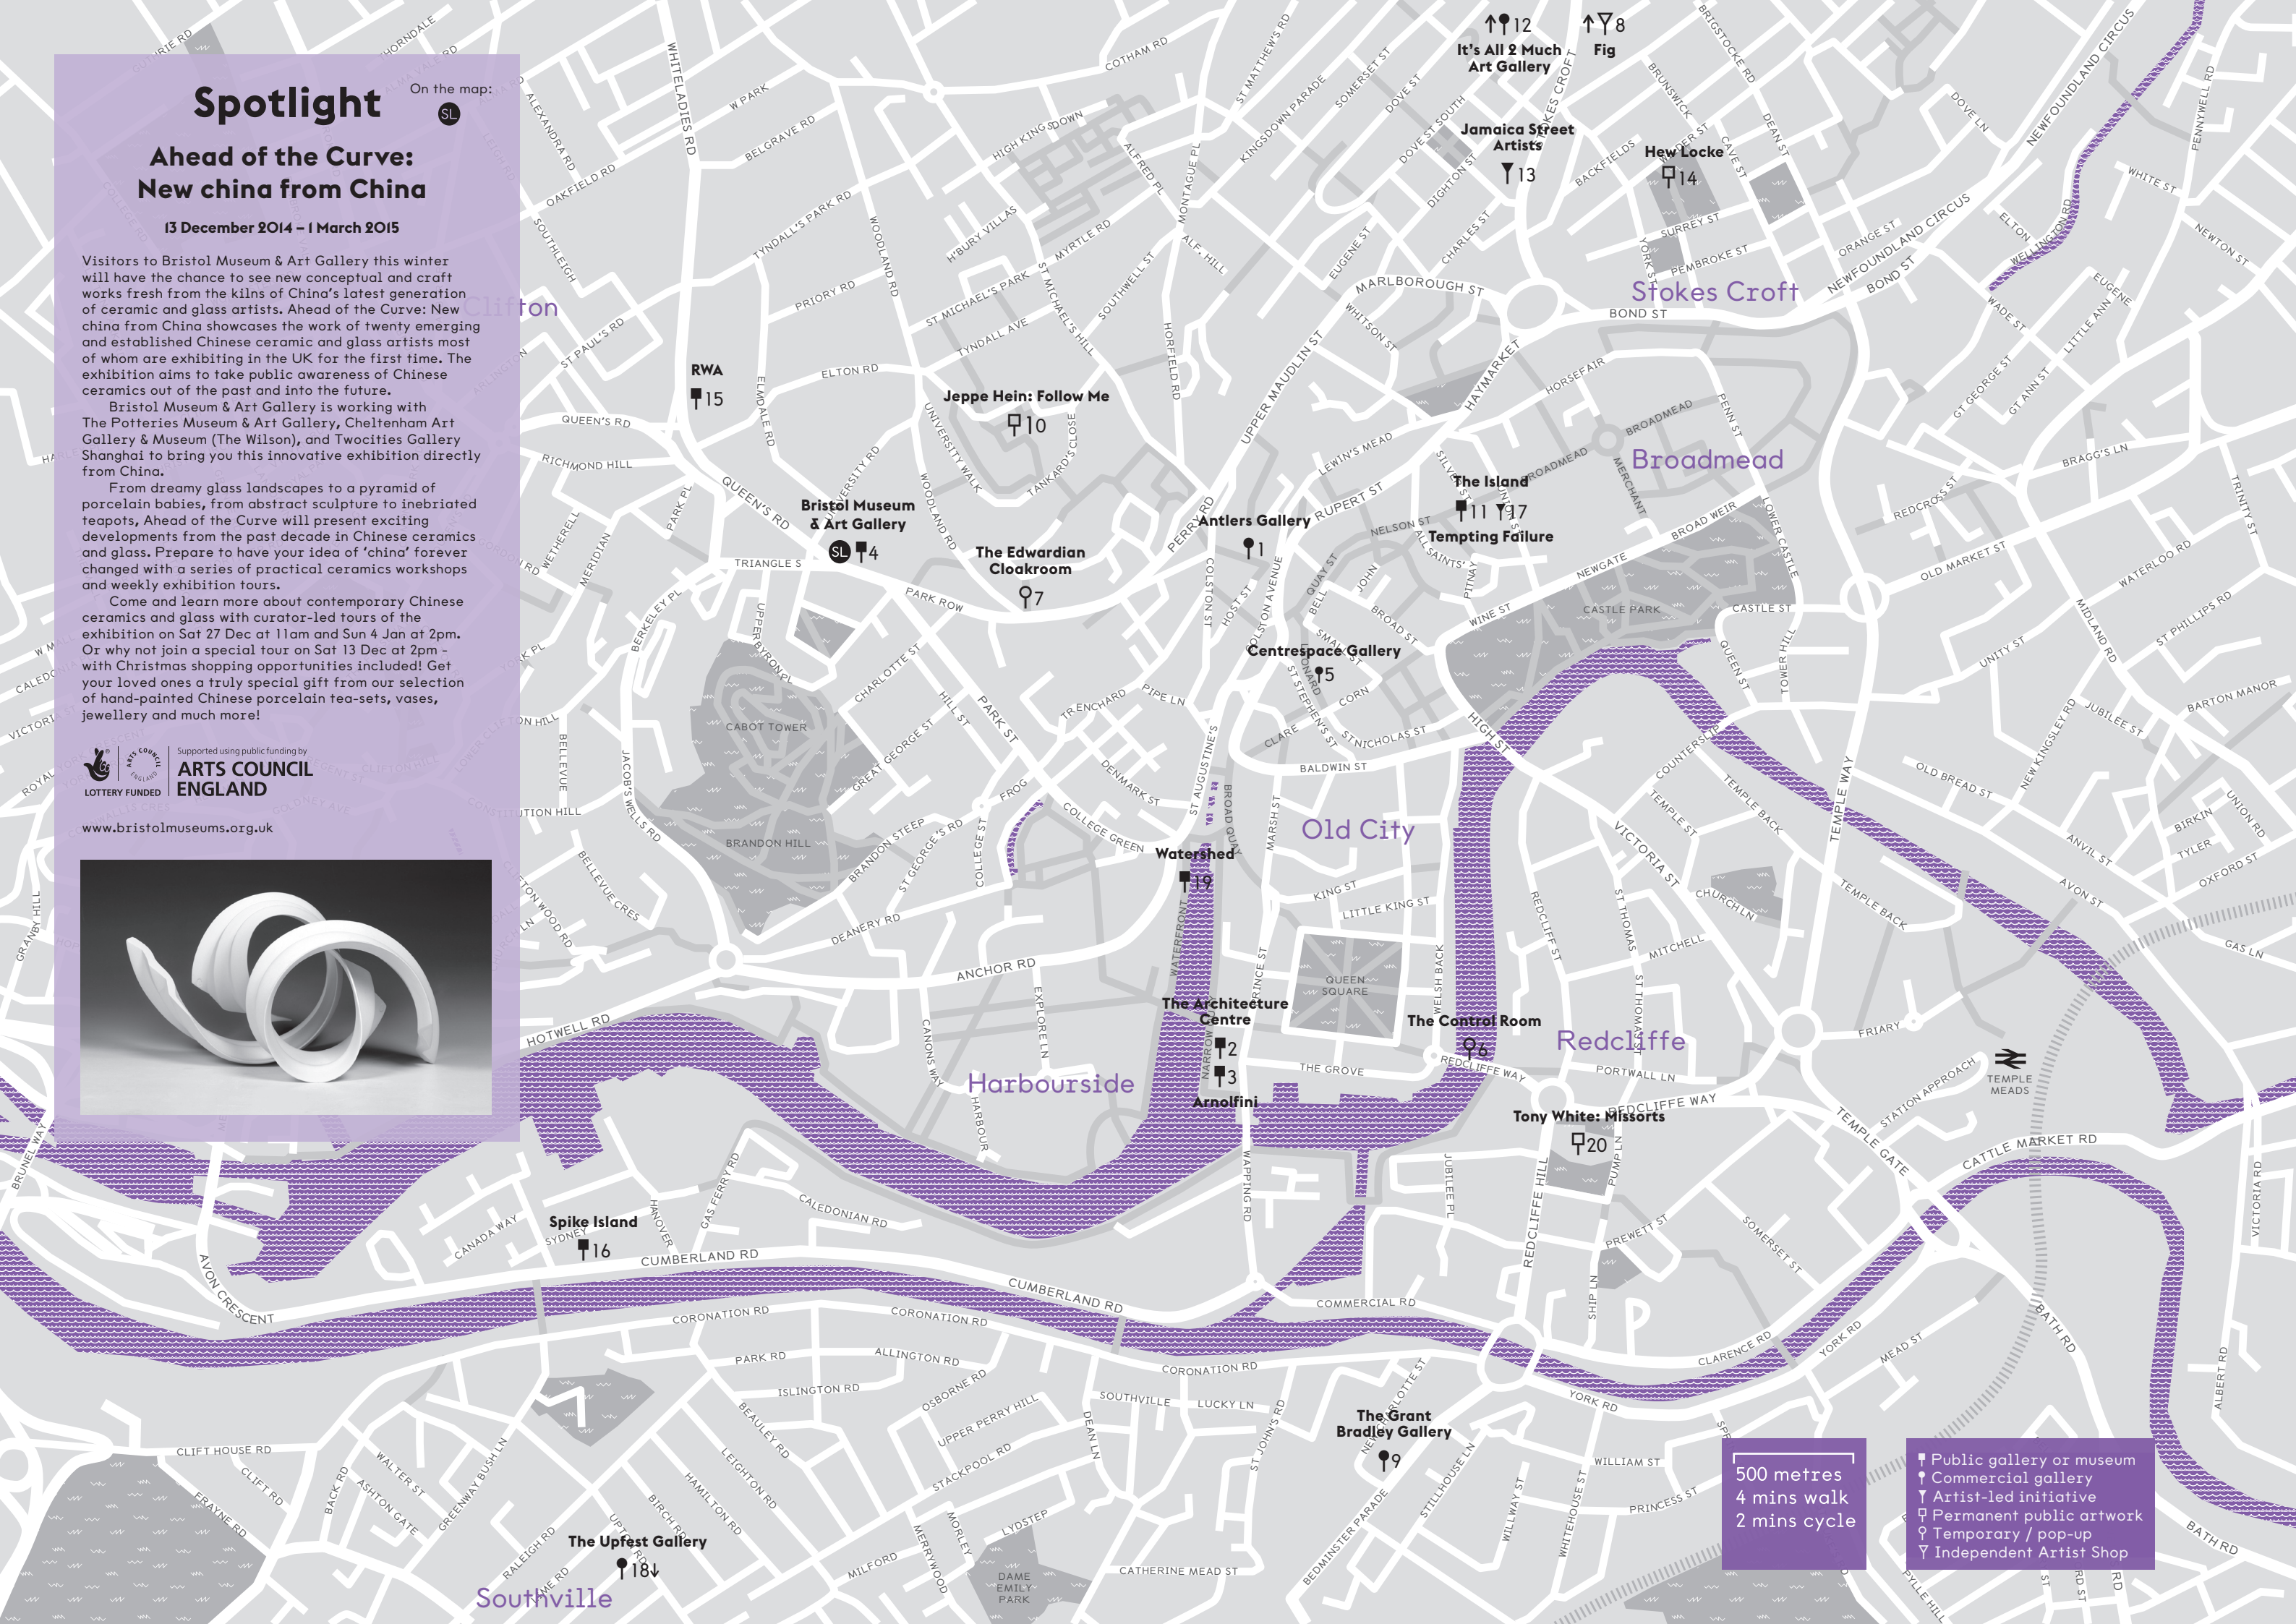

Come and learn more about contemporary Chinese ceramics and glass with curator-led tours of the exhibition on Sat 27 Dec at 11am and Sun 4 Jan at 2pm. Or why not join a special tour on Sat 13 Dec at 2pm - with Christmas shopping opportunities included! Get your loved ones a truly special gift from our selection of hand-painted Chinese porcelain tea-sets, vases, jewellery and much more!
